HISTORY - 4493, Fall 2019
SYLLABUS FOR: HISTORY OF PSYCHOLOGY

GENERAL INFORMATION

Instructor: Dr. Charles I. Abramson
Office: Psychology Department - North Murray 401
Phone: Office: 744-7492
Office Hours: Monday: 7:00 - 8:00 AM and by appointment
Class times: Monday, Wednesday, Friday 9:30 – 10:20, HS 305
Pre-requisite: Psych 1113.

NOTE: INTRODUCTORY PSYCHOLOGY IS REQUIRED TO ENROLL IN THIS COURSE!!! FIRST AND SECOND YEAR STUDENTS BE WARNED THAT THIS IS A DIFFICULT COURSE. I SUGGEST YOU FIND ANOTHER.

Course Goals: Psychology 4493 will introduce you to the basic principles, concepts, and technical language of the History of Psychology. The format will be discussion, films, and laboratories.

Materials: To keep your costs down I do not require a book. There is nothing stopping you from looking at any number of History of Psychology texts. You can find many at the library. If you need suggestions just ask me. The internet is also a good source of material. You will also be assigned readings. It is your responsibility to get them with the references I provide.

The major source of material will be the lectures. The lecture notes and supplemental readings will form the basis of your class text. You should go over your notes each day. I also strongly suggest that you attend class.

A third source of material will come from the films and laboratory sections. The laboratories and films are designed to illustrate the lectures. The laboratories will be conducted within regular class times.

Examinations: There will be three exams and one APA style paper (with presentation). Each exam is worth 32% of your grade and the paper and presentation 4% of your grade. The exams will mostly consist of short answers and essays. The questions will come from the lectures, laboratories, films, and discussions. There are no make-up exams. The final exam is cumulative. The grading scale is as follows:

A = 90-100, \ B = 80-89, \ C = 70-79, \ D = 60-69, \ F = 0-59

Attendance: Attendance is strongly encouraged. Attendance will provide you with the opportunity to discuss and learn about the material not covered in the readings. Moreover, the laboratory component is unique and should not be missed. It is your responsibility to notify me of any circumstances that may interfere with your performance in this course.

NOTE: DO NOT COME TO CLASS LATE!
NOTE: TURN OFF YOUR CELL PHONES! IF YOUR CELL PHONE RINGS
DURING CLASS YOU WILL BE TOLD TO LEAVE!!!!!!!!!!
Important!  Do not make the mistake that because the readings are comparably light that this course will be “easy.” Nothing could be further from the truth. If you have questions or concerns just ask me and I will be happy to assist you. Do not wait until the last minute.

Summary of OSU Academic Policies can be found at the end of this document.

Cheating:  It goes without saying that academic dishonesty will not be permitted. You will be required to leave the class and be given a grade of “F”.

DROPPING A COURSE AND WITHDRAWING FROM THE UNIVERSITY, students often confuse these terms. Dropping a Course (or courses) may occur during the first twelve weeks of the semester. This means, however, that you are still enrolled in at least one other OSU course. Exceptions to the deadlines above may only be considered by petition due to documented extraordinary circumstances and committee approval. The Retroactive Drop/Withdraw Petition and the Petition for a Refund of Tuition and Fees forms are available on the Registrar’s website http://registrar.okstate.edu/Forms.

Withdrawing from the university means dropping all courses and you are no longer enrolled for the current semester. This may occur until the Friday before pre-finals week. The withdrawal process is initiated with your academic advisor. For additional information and dates, go to: http://academicaffairs.okstate.edu/content/adding-dropping-and-withdrawing-courses.

ALERTS AND RESCHEDULING

If the OSU campus officially closes due to inclement weather or other emergencies, alerts are provided to local news media and posted on the OSU website. Missed exams, classes, or assignments may be rescheduled at times outside the normal meeting schedule. If valid, documented circumstances prohibit students from attending the rescheduled classes, instructors should provide reasonable alternative means for makeup.

SEEK ANSWERS TO YOUR QUESTIONS

The OSU faculty and staff want you to be successful in your educational pursuits. If you have questions or concerns, seek help EARLY. We are here to assist you.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

101 Whitehurst/405-744-5627/http://academicintegrity.okstate.edu

OSU is committed to maintaining the highest standards of integrity and ethical conduct. This level of ethical behavior and integrity will be maintained in this course. Participating in a behavior that violates academic integrity (e.g., unauthorized collaboration, plagiarism, multiple submissions, cheating on examinations, fabricating information, helping another person cheat, unauthorized advance access to examinations, altering or destroying the work of others, and altering academic records) will result in an official academic sanction. Violations may subject you to disciplinary action including the following: receiving a failing grade on an assignment, examination or course, receiving a notation of a violation of academic integrity on your transcript, and being suspended from the University. You have the right to appeal the charge.
COPYRIGHT & FAIR USE POLICY OF COURSE MATERIALS
Course materials may not be published, leased, sold to others, or used for any purpose other than appropriate OSU-related individual or group study without the written permission of the faculty member in charge of the course and other copyright holders. This paragraph grants you a limited license giving you access to materials for this course, including PowerPoint slides, audio/video recordings, written, or other materials, for appropriate OSU-related educational use only. Lectures should not be recorded without permission from the faculty member and must not be further disseminated or shared.

CLASS ATTENDANCE
Class attendance is a critical component of learning; therefore, you are expected to attend and participate fully in all scheduled class meetings. Many instructors consider attendance so essential that your grade may be affected by your absence. SOME DEPARTMENTS AND PROFESSORS HAVE MANDATORY ATTENDANCE POLICIES. If no written attendance policy is provided before the last day to add a class without instructor permission, no penalty may be assessed for class absences although you may not be permitted to make up certain in-class activities. If you are required to participate in official university-sponsored activities or military training, you should receive an excused absence unless the written course attendance policy indicates otherwise. If you will be absent from class for sponsored activities, you must provide prior notification of the planned absence to the instructor. You may be required to submit assignments or take examinations before the planned absence.

PRE-FINALS WEEK POLICY
Final examinations are scheduled at the end of each semester and are preceded by pre-finals week, which begins seven days prior to the first day of finals. During pre-finals week, all normal class activities will continue; however, no assignment, test, or examination accounting for more than 5% of the course grade may be given; and no activity or field trip may be scheduled that conflicts with another class. This excludes makeup and laboratory examinations, out-of-class assignments (or projects) made prior to pre-finals week and independent study courses. No student or campus organization may hold meetings, banquets, receptions, or may sponsor or participate in any activity, program, or related function that requires student participation. For additional information, contact the Office of Academic Affairs, 405-744-5627, 101 Whitehurst.

FINAL EXAM OVERLOAD POLICY
In the event you have three or more final exams scheduled for a single day, you are entitled to arrange with the instructor of the highest numbered course (4 digit course number) or two highest, if you have four finals on one day, to re-schedule that examination(s) at a time and place of mutual convenience during final exam week. If the final exam overload includes a common final exam, the common final exam is excluded from rescheduling unless multiple common exams are scheduled at the same time. You should submit this request in writing, with a copy of your class schedule, at least two weeks prior to the beginning of final exam week. The instructor has one week prior to the beginning of final exam week to arrange a mutually convenient time and place for administration of the final exam. After one week, if an agreement cannot be reached, take the request to the department head.
